

Little League Day

Information

The Pine Tree Pirate baseball program would like to invite all future Pirates to our 1st annual Little League day. We would like to help prepare our future Pirates for their upcoming baseball season and what better way than learning from the players and coaching staff of our 2019 Pirate baseball program.

Mission

Our mission is to teach our future Pirates the Pirate way. Our players will introduce the fundamentals and skills necessary to be successful in the game of baseball while giving them the chance to see what Pine Tree Pirate baseball is about. We will also introduce them to some of the core values our program is starting to build such as the value of hard work and discipline.
